Summer Concert Series 2026 Performers

June 18 | Jon Butcher + Juneteenth Celebration

Grammy-nominated guitarist and New England Music Hall of Famer Jon Butcher is one of a select handful of influential recording artists who emerged from the legendary Boston music scene! Video, eclectic radio releases and incendiary live performances comprise the underpinnings of a rich music career that continues today.

June 25 | Tony Gallo and White Lightnin'

Tony Gallo is a founding member of White Lightnin', performing for over 40 years after starting at age 14. He helped shape the band's early sound through songwriting and arranging, and is known for his versatility, having worked with artists like Al Vega and Luther Johnson.

July 9 | Kier Byrnes + The Kettle Burners

Kier Byrnes & The Kettle Burners are a high-energy Americana band known for their unique blend of country, rock, and punk influences. The band has been recognized with awards such as "Americana Artist of the Year" and has performed at prestigious venues, including the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville and featured in the Tiny Desk Concert series.

July 16 | Pop + Rock Covers with Funbucket

Funbucket is a high-energy live band known for their rock, funk, soul, and crowd-favorite music. The band consists of four seasoned musicians recognized for their tight musicianship, killer harmonies, and no-holds-barred attitude towards having a good time.

July 23 | Italian Night with Seabreeze

Fronted by the highly engaging and entertaining singer Stephen Savio, Seabreeze is comprised of musicians who bring their talent, energy, and Italian spirit to every performance. The band is considered one of New England's premiere Italian/American show bands. They perform everything from Broadway hits to Italian favorites, American standards to popular songs.

July 30 | Family Night w/The Young Company + Alastair Moock

The Young Company is Greater Boston Stage Company's year-round theatre education program for students in grades 1-12, offering artistic training and performance opportunities in a professional setting. Alastair Moock is an award-winning singer-songwriter; a Grammy-nominated family musician. The Boston Globe calls him "one of the town's best and most adventurous songwriters."

STONEHAM CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

SUMMER CONCERT SERIES

Since 2003, the Stoneham Chamber of Commerce has organized the annual Summer Concert Series on the Town Common. This popular community initiative features concerts every Thursday night from June 18 - July 30 and is funded entirely by the generosity of chamber members. This presents an excellent opportunity to promote your business while supporting free, family-friendly music events for area residents. In return for your sponsorship, the Stoneham Chamber is dedicated to offering exceptional recognition throughout the entire duration of the Summer Series. We sincerely hope you consider supporting this worthwhile program.
